

4A1

4 = Helping Hand

A = Basic Requirements

1 = Responsibility
(Pledge & Law)

This is the second file of helps for this requirement.

See also the North American Division Induction service expansion of the Law in the Sunbeam class helps.

The next two pages were provided by Lisa von Bratt of North NSW Conference in April 2004. They are pages of the pledge & law for cutting up and repasting. The first is in order already, the second has the law in alphabetic order to make the task harder.

The last two pages were provided by Julie Rainey of the Western Australian Conference in June 2004. This quiz sheet is intended to be completed by each child. It is a comprehensive test of the understanding of the Adventurer Law. It might be wise to discuss this verbally with the group the week before giving the test to make sure that the ideas are grasped. Otherwise the children may be frustrated.

THE ADVENTURER LAW

Match the law with what it means:

Attentive Only put good things in your mind

Obedient Listen to others, think how they are feeling

Helpful Think of what others need

Respectful Be polite, use your best manners

Pure Do as you are told when you are told

What does it mean to be kind?

Which law says we should be loyal to our friends and family?

Which law means to show respect to God?

What does it mean to be cheerful?

Write a law for these meanings:

Pay close attention to what is happening around you

Think about your blessings rather than what you don't have

Realise that everyone is valuable to God and treat them nicely

Always tell the truth and do what is right

Write down someone in the Bible who obeyed, or didn't obey, the following laws:

- Be true _____

- Be attentive _____

- Be cheerful _____

- Be helpful _____

- Be obedient _____

Which law do you think of when you think about these stories:

- The moneychangers in the temple _____

- Abraham and the angels _____

- Annanias and Sapphira _____

- Moses striking the rock _____
